INSTRUCTOR: RALPH FORREST-BALL, CML, CAL , ALOA ACE INSTRUCTOR

Ralph is the owner of Emerald City Locksmith, a successful lock shop in Eugene, Or. He is the vice-president of the Pacific Locksmith Association & is a very popular instructor of NW locksmith classes.

Whether you have a dozen employees or are running your small business by yourself, this class will help you avoid some common pitfalls of small business management and will make your business more profitable. Topics will include tracking inventory, managing one's cash flow, avoiding liability, smart financing, and hiring sound employees. Those students attending are encouraged to bring their own concerns and questions for class discussion. This class is geared toward the retail locksmith business but the principles may easily apply to any number of small businesses.
